
Father, I apply the blood of Jesus over my child. Protect them. Build a hedge of protection around them to guard them physically, emotionally and spiritually. Block their path so that they cannot move towards relationships and activities that would harm them.

Father, remove my child's heart of stone and replace it with a new, pliable soft heart. Make his/her heart into a bed of fertile soil so that the seed of truth sown into it will grow deep roots and bring forth an abundant crop.

Deliver my child from evil. Rescue him/her from a destructive lifestyle. Restore him/her to their senses and bring them home from the land of the enemy.

Father, guide my child into truth. Teach them to recognize lies and deceptive thoughts. Make them alert to the lies and devices of the enemy and teach them how to resist the devil by faith.

Father, cause my child to call out to you in their distress and confusion. Cause him/her to seek you with abandon. Thank you for promising to answer them.

Father, reveal to my child that lasting refreshment and satisfaction that can only be found in you. Teach them to live in faith and freedom, motivated by Your Spirit and in step with You.

Cause my child to love you with all of their heart and soul. May they live all their days with love and rejoicing in you.
